First of all, thank you for the opportunity and honor of serving as SAEA President. As I type this message, the brand new SAEA gavel (thank you, Lisa House) sits on my desk with its inspirational message of “Don’t Screw Up” (thank you, Jeff Jordan) pointed right at me. Our February annual meeting in New Orleans was a great almost-post-pandemic success. Even with lingering travel restrictions and the city’s indoor facemask requirements, we still had a large number of attendees and a full slate of presentations. Most of our 350-plus active faculty, lifetime, and student members were in attendance. The Quiz Bowl competition exemplified the increased level of participation for our New Orleans meeting: 86 undergraduates representing 17 universities. Congratulations to the Bowl’s winning team, the “Eagles”: Emory Johnson (Arkansas), Deborah Myers (Kentucky), and Josie Nasekos (Mississippi State).

If you didn’t get a chance to do so in New Orleans, please take the time to congratulate all of our award winners. Jim Mjelde (Texas A&M) and Jim Larson (Tennessee) were well-deserving recipients of our 2022 Lifetime Achievement Award. Trey Malone (Arkansas), Courtney Bir (Oklahoma State) and Adam Rabinowitz (Auburn) were our Emerging Scholars. Recognized for Outstanding Teaching of a Course and Outstanding Extension Program were John Michael Riley (Oklahoma State) E. Greg Fonsah (Georgia), respectively. Prasenjit Ghosh (Auburn) and Tyllor Ledford (Texas Tech) won the Outstanding Dissertation Award and Outstanding MS Thesis Award, respectively. Congratulations are also due to the winners of our awards for Outstanding JAAE Article (X. Dong and G. Astill), Outstanding Poster (K. Thompson, M. Vestal, B. Guerrero, and B. Golden), 3MT (J. Sestak), and Jobs Market Paper (J. Zhang). Please join me in showing appreciation for the efforts of the SAEA board and JAAE editors. David Anderson (Texas A&M) is now the Past-President, with Marco Palmo (Texas A&M) coming on as President-Elect back in February. Kellie Raper (Oklahoma State) is a great addition to continuing Directors Rebekka Dudensing (Texas A&M) and Mallory Vestal (West Texas A&M). Our JAAE editor trio of Carlos Carpio (Texas Tech), Olga Massa (Virginia Tech), and David Willis (Clemson) continue to ensure the high quality of our Journal. Last but not far from least, the SAEA is indebted to the services of Nathan Smith (Clemson) as Secretary and Jeff Jordan (Georgia) as Treasurer.

The SAEA leadership team just met to make plans for the 2023 annual meeting in Oklahoma City. Below in the newsletter you will see information related to awards nominations and paper/poster submissions for the 2023 meeting. Please feel free to contact any of the Officers, Directors, or Editors if you would like to be more involved in the SAEA, help with the 2023 conference, and/or help serve as a reviewer. The Association depends on volunteer service, so we appreciate your input and ask for your commitment to make this organization better for all of us.

Sincerely,

Rodney Holcomb, SAEA President

Proposals where none of the contributors is a SAEA member will not be considered. Detailed information about how to become a member can be found by visiting www.saea.org.

II. Submission Guidelines: Organized Symposium proposals must be submitted as one pdf file for “Organized Symposium Session Proposal” by September 17, 2022, 11:59 pm CDT <https://www.conftool.org/saea2023/>. III. Submission Procedure: Please follow the following outline when developing the session proposal:

Title: Symposium title.

Organizer: Include address, phone number, and email address.

Moderator and Participants: Names, affiliations, and viewpoints to be represented for all participants.

Time: Specify time allocated to formal statements by presenters, discussion among presenters, and audience participation.

IV. Selection, Presentation, and Publication: Acceptance decisions, based on evaluations by a committee formed among the SAEA membership, will be communicated to the symposia organizers by November 15, 2022. All proposed participants must agree to be at the meetings, prior to submitting symposia proposals. The time allotted to selected symposia is identical to time of Selected Paper sessions and part of the period should include open discussion involving the audience. Abstracts of selected symposia will be published on the SAEA online program. Authors are encouraged to develop a full paper and submit to JAAE where the paper will go through the journal’s standard review process.

Chair contact Dr. Marco Palma: mapalma@tamu.edu.
